In view of increasing cases of fraud recently, BCM reminds customers to carefully beware of fraudulent advertisement, phishing website, app, telephone, email, SMS, the confirmation of Credit Card transaction instruction and other forms of fraud that attempt to obtain customers' personal information and induce to perform any transaction. Customers should be alert and avoid to disclose any sensitive personal data through internet, phone or any suspicious service platform, including Credit Card information and one-time password to protect your interest.

If customers have disclosed any personal information to a suspicious third party, executed any transaction or instruction, etc., you should report to the Police immediately.

In case of any query, please call our hotline at 8796 8888 during office hours.
